Chapter one - From principles to action: *From words to actions

4.Exchange of views and the sharing of effective practices are essential to implementing the Geneva decisions at the regional and international levels. To this end, efforts should be made to provide and share useful knowledge and know-how, related to the elaboration, monitoring and evaluation of national e-strategies and policies, as appropriate, in order to bridge the digital divide.

To this end, efforts should be made to provide and share useful knowledge and know-how, related to the elaboration, monitoring and evaluation of national implementation strategies and policies. We encourage WSIS stakeholders to continue to organise and participate in regional and international conferences and WSIS-related thematic meetings.*

10.In order to assure the sustainability of the WSIS process after the completion of its Tunis phase, we agree to establish an implementation mechanism for the Geneva and Tunis Plans of Action, based upon co-operation among governments and all stakeholders, with the overarching goal of helping countries and societies to achieve the development goals of the Millennium Declaration. To that end, for each Action Line in the Geneva and Tunis Plans of Action (as identified in the Annex), a team of stakeholders will work together to promote implementation. We request the UN Secretary-General to nominate, from among existing UN bodies or specialised agencies, those that will [moderate/coordinate] the work of each team, based on respect for their mandates and leveraging on their expertise, and within their existing resources.

To that end, for each Action Line in the Geneva Plan of Action (as identified in the Annex), a team of stakeholders will work together to promote implementation. We request the UN Secretary-General to define an appropriate UN body or specialised agency which will coordinate the work of each team, within its field of competence and existing resources.*

Chapter two - Financial mechanisms

12. We thank the UN Secretary-General for his efforts in creating the Task Force on Financial Mechanisms (TFFM) and we commend them on their report.

13 [Mandate of the TFFM]

13. We recognise that the TFFM has fulfilled the mandate given by the Geneva phase of the Summit, for a thorough review of the adequacy of existing financial mechanisms in meeting the challenges of ICT for development, within the constraints of the brief time available.
