Follow-up to WSIS

OP1. Welcomes the strong developmental orientation of the outcomes of both the Geneva and the Tunis phases of the Summit, and urges their full implementation, (agreed)

OP2. Decides to carry out its responsibilities for overseeing the system-wide follow-up to WSIS outcomes in the context of its annual consideration of the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to major United Nations conferences and summits in the coordination segment on the basis of a thematic approach and a multi-year programme in accordance with General Assembly resolution 57/270B, based upon the work of the Commission on Science and Technology for Development and drawing upon other relevant inputs, (agreed)

OP2.ter

Takes note of the important role of UN Regional Commissions and encourages them to undertake specific activities in accordance with the WSIS outcomes, (agreed)

Role of the Commission on Science and Technology for Development

Mandate

OP3. Decides that, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 57/270B and 60/252, the Commission shall effectively assist ECOSOC as the focal point in the system-wide follow-up, in particular the review and assessment of progress made in implementing the outcomes of WSIS, while at the same time maintaining its original mandate on science and technology for development, also taking into account the provisions of paragraph 60 of the Outcome of the 2005 World Summit⁹; (agreed)

OP3.bis Agrees that the system-wide follow-up shall have a strong development orientation, (agreed)

OP4. Decides that, in the exercise of its responsibility as defined in paragraph OP3 above, the Commission on Science and Technology for Development shall review and assess progress made in implementing the outcomes of WSIS and advise the Council thereon, including through the elaboration of recommendations to the Council aimed at furthering Summit outcomes. To that end, the Commission shall:

⁹ UNGA resolution 60/1 (pp 60)

- a) review and assess progress at the international and regional levels in the implementation of Action Lines, recommendations and commitments contained in the outcome documents of WSIS;
- b) share best and effective practices and lessons learned, and identify obstacles and constraints encountered, actions and initiatives to overcome them and important measures for further implementation of WSIS outcomes;
- c) promote dialogue and foster partnerships in coordination with other appropriate UN funds, programmes and specialized agencies to contribute to the attainment of the WSIS objectives and implementation of its outcomes, to use ICT for development and the achievement of internationally agreed development goals, with the participation of governments, private sector, civil society and the UN and other international organizations according to their different roles and responsibilities;

Composition

OP5. Decides that the Commission on Science and Technology for Development shall be strengthened in its substantive capacity and enhanced through effective and meaningful participation of Member States in its work. It decides also that the Commission shall be enlarged by ten new members. The additional members shall be elected bearing in mind the principle of balanced and equitable geographical distribution and in accordance with procedures and timetables to be established by the Council, from among the States Members of the United Nations or States Members of specialized agencies;

Working methods

OP6. Also decides that the Commission shall meet annually for a period of five working days in Geneva on a trial basis with review in CSTD after two years and making recommendation to the Council thereon;

OP7. Decides that in line with the Council's decision 2005/308, and in the exercise of its responsibilities as defined in OP3 above the Commission shall continue working on the basis of biennial action cycles; (agreed)

OP7bis. Taking into account the Commission's mandates as contained in OP3 above, decides that in the next session the Commission shall develop its agenda and a multi-year work programme; (agreed)

OP7ter. Recommends that the Commission provide for governments, private sector, civil society and the UN and other international organizations to participate effectively in its work and contribute, within their areas of competence, to its deliberations,

OP8. Decides that its future sessions will increasingly be conducted as interactive dialogue; (agreed)

OP9. Decides that, in addition to its traditional working practices, the Commission will continue to explore development-friendly and innovative use of electronic media, drawing upon existing online databases on best practices, partnership projects and initiatives, as well as other collaborative electronic platforms, which would allow all stakeholders to contribute to follow-up efforts, share information, learning from the experience of others and explore opportunities for partnerships. (agreed)

Multi-stakeholder approach

OP10a Decides that while using the multi-stakeholder approach effectively, the intergovernmental nature of the Commission should be preserved;

OP10b Decides also that:

- a) Pursuant to ECOSOC resolution 1996/31, non-governmental organizations and civil society entities without consultative status to ECOSOC, but which have received accreditation to WSIS, may participate, upon approval by ECOSOC in a timely manner, on an exceptional basis and without prejudice to the established rules of the United Nations, in the next two meetings of the Commission. This provision is based on the understanding that in the meantime, said organizations and entities apply for consultative status to ECOSOC in accordance with existing rules and procedures, and that in accordance with Council resolution 1996/31, the Committee on NGO is invited to consider such applications, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the United Nations and to do so as expeditiously as possible;
- b) On an exceptional basis, without prejudice to existing rules of procedure, business sector entities, including the private sector, in particular those who have received accreditation to WSIS, may participate, upon approval by ECOSOC in a timely manner, in the work of the Commission in accordance with the rules of procedure of ECOSOC.

OP10c. Decides that every effort should be made by CSTD, in collaboration with relevant UN bodies and other interested parties, to mobilize and ensure meaningful and effective participation, including through providing assistance on a voluntary basis, of all stakeholders from developing countries, including non-governmental organizations, small- and medium-size enterprises, industry associations and development actors.

Secretariat support

OP11. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure effective and adequate secretariat support by UNCTAD to the Commission, to enable it to fulfil its mandate as outlined in OP3 above, while ensuring, in this regard, close collaboration with other relevant United Nations organizations and specialized agencies;

Reporting

OP11.bis Requests the Secretary-General to inform the Commission on the implementation of WSIS outcomes as a part of his annual reporting to the Commission, (agreed)

OP12. Requests the Commission to submit to the Council, within its annual report, information on the progress made in the implementation of and follow-up to WSIS outcomes at the regional and international level; (agreed)

OP13. Decides to keep the General Assembly advised, through its annual report of progress made in the implementation of and follow-up to WSIS outcomes, taking into account the work of the Commission on Science and Technology for Development.
